

This volume, one of the series UNITED STATES ARMY IN WORLD WAR II, is the third to be published in the group of four Corps of Engineers volumes in the sub-series THE TECHNICAL SERVICES. The volumes in the over-all series will be closely related and will present a comprehensive account of the activities of the Military Establishment during World War II. A list of subseries is appended at the end of this volume.

Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 79-610220

First Printing